

Students Get into Character as Famous Granite Staters

*submitted by Presentation of Mary
Academy, Hudson*

The fourth graders at the Presentation of Mary Academy each did a report on a famous person from New Hampshire. Some of the people they learned about were Daniel Webster, General John Stark, Horace Greeley, Robert Frost, Elizabeth Yates, Christa McAuliffe and Matthew Thornton. They presented their reports to the class and many of them dressed as their famous subjects. The students concluded their unit on New Hampshire history with a field trip to the state house on April 22.

Courtesy photo

From left are Michael Wimmer, Katie Swan, Francesca Vesey, Meghan Stack, Delia Sullivan, Carlo Catalan, Alexander Ross, Hannah Pavletich, Aiden Laurendeau, Rebecca Mattei-Brown, and Samantha Clardy.