The Chin children are at it again! Isabel and Daniel Chin, who attend the Presentation of Mary Academy in Hudson, are continuing their musical journey.

Once again, they will be playing with the Nashua Chamber Orchestra. This year's concert will be held on March 12 with each child playing a solo piece. In addition, Daniel won second place in the American Protégé Competition and will be playing at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall in New York on April 23. Isabel and Daniel will also be playing for other events and master classes in Boston with their chamber groups. Isabel and Daniel are not only talented musicians.

Principal Sister Maria Rosa said, "I am so proud of the children. Not only are they super
